Dear Balkan Caving Friends,

We are happy to announce that we have received from Serbia a proposal for the organisation of the Balkan Cavers' Camp in 2014 and the proposal was accepted by majority vote by the BSU Bureau.

Following the recent floods and other acts of God in Serbia, the Balkan Cavers Camp of 2014 was postponed. In accordance with the Bureau of BSU the hosts of the Camp together with the staff of Federation of Speleological Organizations of Serbia (SSOS) decide to move the period of the camp from 24 to 28 September 2014!

The new details are: 8th Balkan Cavers' Camp, 24 September 24 th to 28 th 2014 at the village of Mravinjci, Lelić karst area, south-west of the town of Valjevo in western Serbia (100 km from Belgrade).

The main part of the Camp will be held in the area of Lelić karst, south-west of the town of Valjevo in western Serbia. The participants will be in a position to visit caves in the area (up to 183 m deep): Dragov Ponor, Lenčina Pećina, Vrančev Ponor, Filipov Ponor, Orlovača, Ponara-Plandište, as well as the canyons of the rivers Tribuća and Trešnjica.

More information will be available in the web page of the event Balkan Speleo Camp
